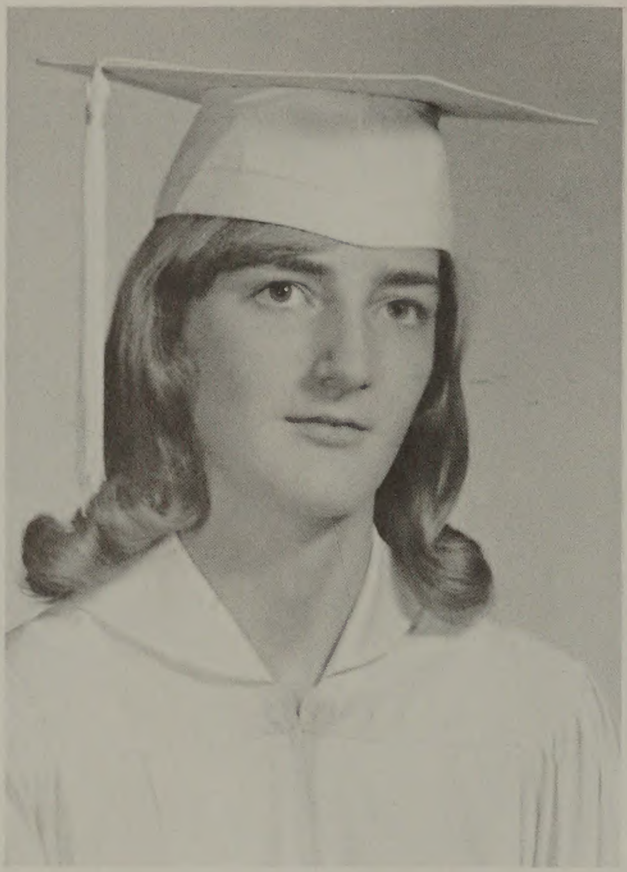
Dedication

This year, the class of 1967 thought it appropriate to dedicate their yearbook to two teachers who have both given unselfishly of their time and talent in guiding our class. We could always count on their assistance when problems arose, such as preparing our Junior Prom and chaperoning our many dances.

In order to express our deep appreciation we, the class of 1967, take great pleasure in dedicating Memoirs 1967 to you,

Miss Sandra Bushnell
and
Mr. Dominic Donato



Nancy Williams
Editor-in-Chief

FOREWORD

Now, as the 1966-67 school year is coming to a close, we look back over its memorable events. An outstanding event was that RCS, through the efforts of the students, won the WTRY School Spirit Contest and hosted the WTRY School Spirit Dance.

In this year's Memoirs, we have tried to present the school life and activities through pictures and words. For the first time, the full names were placed on the pictures that had ten or fewer people. Also, a joint dedication was substituted for the single dedication.

We, the staff, have tried to depict the atmosphere and life at RCS in Memoirs 1967, and hope that you, the students, will treasure these memories for many years to come.

Principal's Message

1964-1965-1966-1967 and all of a sudden it's graduation time. When you first began your high school career four years ago as an eager but slightly apprehensive group of 9th graders, the four years ahead probably looked like forty. Yet now that four year span is all part of your memories; one of the most important segments of your young lives is over.

As you look back at that time, what are your feelings? Are you satisfied that you did your best with the time you had? Did you put forth your best efforts most of the time? Do you wish you could have done better — a lot better — in your studies? Maybe you should have tried out for that special team or activity after all instead of waiting until it was too late?

Whatever your feelings are about what might have been or what you might have done better, the point to remember is to look ahead and not backward. The old adage about not crying over spilt milk is still as true today as it ever was. Dredging up might-have-beens can only cause regret and doubts. The wonderful and most important thing to remember is that all of you still have a huge supply of that precious commodity called time still to draw upon. God and the elements willing, a long span of years stretches out ahead of you to use as best you can. Those of you who are entering the business world can resolve to make these beginning years of work ones in which you prove your dependability, industry and imagination. You who are college bound can be sure to build upon your skills acquired in high school and leave your mark in the academic world around you.

All of you are entering upon one of the most exciting periods of your life where you will make many important decisions. Use your time well; develop your talents to their utmost; find out what you can do and do it to the best of your ability. There are still worlds to be conquered if you will try.

Frank J. Filippone
Principal

At this time of the year the thoughts of most seniors are on that fateful day in June when they receive their diploma. But I would like to direct your thoughts to another future date — your 10th reunion.

It will probably be held in one of our local restaurants and you will scramble through your "old" yearbook to recapture the faces and memories of classmates you haven't seen in several years. During that 10 year period some of the most important events in your lives will have taken place: for some — college, for others, a job or a career, for most of the boys — the armed forces, for practically all — marriage and children.

In a real sense, our work with you during your stay at R-C-S is in preparation for that day in 1977 when you will look back. The success and happiness that you will experience during that ten year period will be the reward for our labors. Your frustrations and failures will be ours as well.

I know that you will have a happy graduation day — here is wishing you a happy tenth reunion too!

Board of Education

Mr. P. D. Archibald, President of the Board of Education.

Congratulations, Class of 1967 upon your fine performance and leadership at Ravena-Coeymans-Selkirk.

With mixed emotions, we receive the 1967 Memoirs; it means the nearing of the end of our pleasant and worthwhile association with you, but it also means that you are now ready to leave behind those "good old days" and move into that demanding world for which you have so long and carefully prepared. May your direction always be up!

The world before you is beset with problems which previous generations have never known, and yet over one hundred years ago, Charles Sumner said, "Give me the money that has been spent in war . . . and I will build a schoolhouse in every valley over the entire earth." You are prepared as none before you to meet this challenge. Look for opportunities to serve your fellow man, and your reward will be directly proportionate to what you give of yourself.

Good luck to each and every one of you.

Prescott D. Archibald, President

Glancing back over our four years at R-C-S we, the Class of '67, see many pleasant memories. The three dances held in our freshman year — the Hoop Dance, Valentines Dance, and Freshmen Dance — were the beginning of many successful events sponsored by our class.

As sophomores in 1965, we held three more successful dances. One of them was an informal dance, "The Jean Hop."

Next came one of our biggest years in high school, our junior year with three of our class receiving National Merit Scholarship Letters of Commendation. On March 11, we proudly received our class rings at the annual Ring Dance. The highlight of our third year, however, was our Junior Prom, "Shangra-La," which was held on May 21.

During this, our last year at R-C-S, we began our activities in the fall with our dance, "The Last-Leaf." We also sponsored the "Sno-Ball" on December 17. In addition, the Class of '67 was in charge of the refreshments at home basketball games. In June, one of the final events of our high school life was held — the Senior Banquet.

In closing, the Class of '67 wishes to thank all those who have helped to make our high school days happy and successful.

Junior Class

The highlight of the junior's year was the junior prom, which was held on May 20. However, this was only one of the many junior class activities.

In order to keep the treasurer Adele Rickard, busy with the funds, the juniors held two successful dances. The first one, which was entitled "Indian Summer" was held in October. The other one was held in the spring.

The junior class also sponsored two other fund-raising activities. On Parent's night, November 3, the class held a very successful bake sale. They also came up with another original idea, a toothbrush sale, which was held in the latter part of the fall.

Finally, after waiting for three years, the juniors became the proud owners of school rings. The rings were formally presented to them during the Ring Dance, which was sponsored by the Student Council.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Marilyn D'Ambrosi, vice-president; Adele Rickard, treasurer; Margaret Van Schaack, secretary; and Bruce Bowdy, president.

Freshman Class

The freshmen started their year by electing Terry Castle, president; Jimmy Rickard, vice-president; Mary Spaziani, secretary; and Denise DiPierro, treasurer.

They had a profitable year with Mrs. Larson as chief advisor. The class sponsored two dances, one in December and one in the latter part of April. The freshmen class also held a successful candy sale during the Easter season.

Outside of their own class activities, the freshmen were represented in many of the school's activities such as F.T.A., F.N.C., J.V. Football, and wrestling. The freshmen boys also had a Freshmen Basketball team. These are only a few of their activities, but in the future years they hope to participate in even more.

Business Staff of Memoirs

The business staff of the Memoirs was under the leadership of Mr. William Gearhardt. This staff was kept busy raising the necessary funds to pay for the publication of the yearbook. The money was raised by collecting advertisements from area businesses and through patrons. The members were also in charge of selling subscriptions to the yearbook.

Staff and Shield

This year the Staff & Shield was under the advisorship of Mr. George Stoughton and Mrs. Patricia Keating. The staff under the editor-in-chief, Bette Archibald, published nine issues.

Once again they sponsored the annual paperback book fair for the students at R-C-S. They also took second place at the Columbia Scholastic Press Conference held in March in New York City.

The Gossamer Thread

This year, the name of the Lance was changed to "The Gossamer Thread." It was a thriving literary magazine under the advisorship of Mrs. Marie Fitzgerald. The purpose of this magazine was to renew literary interest. This purpose was achieved through the efforts of Kathy VanDerZee, the editor-in-chief, as well as her staff. In order to raise money enough to publish the magazine, the organization sponsored an "Ugly Man Contest."

Row 1: J. McLagan, S. Emery, J. Bohl. Row 2: R. Melligan, J. Knox, N. Morehouse, D. Lambert, Dr. E. Staley, M. Melligan, D. Fowler, D. Spinella, A. Daly, J. Borowski, L. Kriete, C. Orme, J. Barry.

Junior High Reporter

R.C.S. was the home of another new newspaper this year, the Junior High Reporter. Five issues of this paper were printed. The paper was under the advisorship of Miss Eva Staley. The editor, Bea Engel; general manager, Julie Filippone; treasurer, Arthur Hildebrandt; advertisement manager, Carol Crammond and James Bohl worked diligently along with several other students to make this paper the success it was.

Senior High Student Council

The senior high school Student Council, under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Tuohey, was very active this year. Again through the Foster-Parent Plan, the members made it possible for the student body to adopt a boy from Viet Nam. Among their activities they sponsored a football weekend in October, consisting of a snake dance, bonfire, hootenanny, football game, and victory dance. The Student Council also sponsored the Ring Dance for the juniors on March 10. The "pep" rallies for each sport and the annual Christmas Party were also provided by the Student Council, as were the School Days pictures taken in the fall and the refreshments at home football games.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association was sponsored by Mrs. Sgroi and Miss Faxon. It increased its membership in October when it held an initiation day. The new members were a sight to behold as they dressed up in their father's shirts, long skirts, two different socks and shoes. Braids and signs proclaiming "I am a G.A.A. Gal" completed the costumes.

Their projects for the year included participation in the gym exhibition and refereeing games in girls' gym classes. Many of the members also participated in girls' intramurals.

Varsity Club

The purpose of the Varsity Club is to promote school athletics and good sportmanship, as well as good school spirit.

Among their activities, the club sponsored a very successful dance on November 6. They also held a candy drive to aid in paying for their Varsity Club jackets, which they receive as Seniors.

VARSITY CLUB OFFICERS: Vice President, Monty Wager; Secretary, Mike McNaughton; President, Glen Macdonald; Treasurer, Dale Case.

The 1966 track team of R.C.S. had a very successful year. It was undefeated at the close of the season. Congratulations!

Cross Country

The 1966-67 Cross-country team was the largest and strongest team that has represented R-C-S since the team was started four years ago, in 1964.

This year the team placed first in our Colonial Council with an undefeated record and also was undefeated in duel meets. The team added four new trophies to the case, making seven in the last two years.

The team's power was the result of vigorous training, set for the boys by Coach Victor Carrk, and the fact that four of our top runners were veterans from other years:

Douglas Wilsey, Wayne Cronin, Robert Paul, George Babcock, Mr. Stoughton, Coach; Kenneth Chiovaro, Jack Gombel, Mark Tracey, Captain; Joseph Wasial.

Bowling

As the champions of the Colonial Council, the R-C-S Varsity Bowling Team finished its season with a record of 30 wins and 10 losses. In the Class B Sectionals, the R-C-S Varsity Bowling Team placed third.

The team's high single game for the season was 898 and its high three game total was 2589.

R-C-S is looking forward to another championship bowling team next year, as only one senior was on this year's team. A junior high bowling team, under the leadership of Mrs. Lyons, will furnish bowlers for future years.

Weight Lifting Club

The Weightlifting Club is a new club at R.C.S. under the advisorship of Mr. Salzano. It was founded to make the body more physically fit as well as to create interest in the field of weightlifting.

The club planned to hold a dance in order to raise money for the ten new sets of 110 pound weights which were purchased with the aid of the Student Council. The members, as soon as they were ready to do so, planned to present a weight-lifting exhibition. To complete this year's activities weight-lifting meets were attended at the YMCA.

Prom

On Saturday evening, May 21, 1966, the Junior Class of R.C.S. presented their prom, "Shangrai-La." The beautifully decorated gymnasium emphasized a blue mist ceiling and a Chinese setting decorated by the Junior Class. At 11 P.M., the long-awaited moment came. At this time, the court and candidates began their march down the bridge to the stage in the gymnasium. The pages, Ronald Bebee and Beth Klenk led the procession. Former King Guy Wyche and Queen Marcia Babcock came next, followed by their court which consisted of members from each class. Then entered the candidates for the new king and queen: Patty Palmer, Janet Stalker, Dorothy Logan, Kathy Frances, Scott Hunter, Glen Macdonald, Bobby Knox, and Leo DiPierro. As the audience watched with growing excitement, King Guy and Queen Marcia crowned Leo DiPierro and Kathy Frances as the new King and Queen of the Junior Prom.

The prom will always remain in the memory of the class of '67.
